

High Meadows School in North Atlanta (Roswell), Georgia seeks a new elementary school, Theatre Arts Teacher, preferably with additional experience in Music/Musical Theatre. The School takes pride in hiring dynamic, compassionate, and diverse faculty and staff who are among the finest in their areas of expertise.

School's Mission Statement

To celebrate and perpetuate each individual's quest for knowledge and skill, sense of wonder, and connection to the natural environment. We empower each to be a compassionate, responsible, and active global citizen.

Summary

Our educators are experienced, energetic, and collaborative individuals who follow a constructivist, progressive educational philosophy which is student-centered and hold kids to high but reasonable standards. We look for educators who maintain excellence in relationships with families, work successfully within a team, understand developmentally appropriate practices for students at different grade levels, and foster an inclusive environment in their classroom and school. At High Meadows, we believe that children possess a drive for cognitive, physical, and social engagement—a drive that is developed and enhanced by an environment that promotes academic challenge, creativity, personal responsibility, and a positive self-image.

Knowledge and Skill Set Requirements:

Must be motivated, nurturing, creative, self-directed, and a collaborative team member. Must have excellent communication and interpersonal skills with a passion and energy for teaching children. Desire to play a meaningful role in each student's daily school life and the life of the school. Demonstrated ability to clearly communicate, collaborate, and teach theatre principles, techniques, and skills. Ability to nurture and challenge each student. Models continuous learning, and demonstrates a commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion. Understands academic, social, behavioral, and emotional development milestones of children. Understands positive discipline in a progressive educational setting.

Essential Job Functions:

1. Responsible for producing, directing, designing, writing (or acquiring the rights for) performances.
2. Responsible for all teaching within the classroom, including supervision and direct instruction. Teaching a wide variety of theatrical experiences including but not limited to creative dramatics, playwriting, improvisation, puppetry, production design, vocal dynamics, and body awareness. Adheres to school philosophy around student supervision and project-based inquiry learning.
3. Models professional teaching, learning, classroom management and supervision.
4. Responsible for student involvement, and models appropriate behavior for students. Maintains passion and excitement for working with all students, using both indoor and outdoor areas of the campus. Engages children as individuals in a way that allows them to grow in their own ability.
5. Creates an academically rich and culturally diverse curriculum, being knowledgeable of the PYP curriculum in the grade level being taught, and being familiar with the curriculum above and below the grade level as well. Collaborates with the MY Theatre Arts teacher to design and implement content standards, ensuring vertical and horizontal curriculum alignment.

The Campus

High Meadows School sits on 42 wooded acres in Roswell. The school is housed in several buildings spread across the two meadows on the property. We have an active barnyard on campus, serving as the home for horses, sheep, bunnies, chickens, and pigs. Faculty and staff must be comfortable traveling between buildings in all types of weather, participating in outdoor activities, and intermingling with animals.
